NMMRA Announces 2009 Board of Directors

Albuquerque — At the May board of directors' meeting, the New Mexico Medical Review Association (NMMRA) announced the election or appointment of four board members by the association's membership and current directors respectively. Directors re-elected include: John Lundy, MD, Deming, and Don Seelinger, MD, Albuquerque, current President.

New to the board is Robert Boverie, BA, BBA, Albuquerque, who brings a strong private-sector business background. He is currently in partnership with his wife as a broker and realtor in the Albuquerque metropolitan area. Mr. Boverie also acquired three years experience in the not-for-profit arena as administrative director of Samaritan Counseling Center. He is president-elect of the Rotary Club of Albuquerque and is grants and scholarship chair for the Rotary District Foundation.

Charlene Casados, RN, BS, was appointed to fill the Medicare Beneficiary position vacated by Ophelia Rinaldi, MSW, who had reached her six years of service cap. Ms. Rinaldi was honored by the Board for her contributions over the past six years, especially as chair of NMMRA's Consumer Advisory Council.

Other directors include: Danny Burnett, MEd, Albuquerque; Janet Carbary, MBA, Carlsbad; Stephen Haynes, MD, MPH, Clovis, Vice President; Lucrecia Jaramillo, JD, Albuquerque; Annie Jung, MEd, Albuquerque, Secretary/Treasurer; Sambaiah Kankanala, MD, MBA, Hobbs; Richard Kozoll, MD, MPH, Cuba and Anne Simpson, MD, CMD, Albuquerque.

New Mexico Medical Review Association

NMMRA is a not-for-profit, physician-sponsored organization that is New Mexico's federally contracted Medicare Quality Improvement Organization and External Quality Review Organization for Medicaid. The organization works with health care providers, consumers and health care organizations, and state and federal agencies to improve the quality of health care in New Mexico.
