Overton Promoted to NMMRA Project Coordinator/CME Coordinator

Albuquerque, NM — The New Mexico Medical Review Association (NMMRA) has promoted Courtney Overton, AAS, MOS, to the position of project coordinator for the prevention team and the company’s continuing medical education (CME) coordinator. Overton has been with NMMRA since 2006, previously serving as an administrative assistant.

Overton’s responsibilities are aimed at optimizing the use of electronic health record (EHR) systems and preventive services in select physician practices in New Mexico. She holds an Associate of Applied Science in Business Administration from Central New Mexico Community College.

“Overton supports prevention theme participants and NMMRA colleagues with her excellent communication skills, dedication to customer service, and outstanding organizational and technical skills,” says Sheila Conneen, PhD, MPH, MSN, ANP-BC, NMMRA project manager.

NMMRA is a not-for-profit, physician-sponsored organization that is New Mexico’s federally contracted Medicare Quality Improvement Organization and External Quality Review Organization for Medicaid. The organization works with health care providers, consumer and health care organizations, and state and federal agencies to improve the quality of health care in New Mexico.
