Lujan Joins NMMRA's Healthcare Quality Review Team

Albuquerque, NM – The New Mexico Medical Review Association (NMMRA) has hired Greg Lujan, LISW, as a quality and performance improvement project manager responsible for monitoring and evaluating the physical health, long-term care and behavioral health care contract requirements of the New Mexico Salud! program.

Greg Lujan, LISW

Mr. Lujan brings to NMMRA over 15 years of experience in direct behavioral health care, including work in residential treatment and clinical supervision. He has extensive managed care, case management, quality improvement and supervisory experience. Prior to joining NMMRA, he worked as a quality management specialist and specialized care coordinator for ValueOptions and performed provider clinical reviews, investigated quality-of-care concerns, and collected and evaluated high-volume provider annual quality management/quality improvement plans. He holds a master's degree in social work and bachelor's in psychology.

NMMRA is a not-for-profit, physician-sponsored organization that is New Mexico's federally contracted Medicare Quality Improvement Organization and External Quality Review Organization for Medicaid. The organization works with health care providers, consumer and health care organizations, and state and federal agencies to improve the quality of health care in New Mexico. For more information about NMMRA, visit www.nmmra.org.
